

Guidelines for end-of-the-year reflections

The paper should be a 1-2 page reflection of the class and what you learned (which is a lot!), particularly as it relates to using observations for your final paper and the active learning activities in class and discussion sections and whether these helped your learning of the material.